The Bison, 2014

In November 2012, artist Doug Comeau received a call from the Royal Canadian Mint regarding design submissions for a silver coin collector series celebrating the largest land mammal in North America, the bison.

Honoured to have been selected as one of the submission artists, Doug began research on the Canadian Bison for four detailed drawings representing four separate silver coins in a series.

The bison silver coin series were introduced and dated 2014.

Each 1oz, 38 mm coin was struck CANADA 20 DOLLARS 2014.

Artist Doug Comeau was awarded a coin design from the Royal Canadian Mint who chose the bison portrait for one of the silver collector coins distributed in February 2014.
